FROM THE RELICS OF THE PAST TO THE PRESENT

Mira Mesa is situated in an area once inhabited by Indian tribes, the relics and bones of which can still be found in Penasquitos canyons. When the Spaniards came, the area was part of a large land grant that became known as Rancho Penasquitos. Because much of the land was wasteland, it was not put to much use for years until developers in the early 1960's saw its potential to relieve the housing shortage San Diego was suffering.

When families started moving in, however, they realized there weren't any schools for their children. Some elementary schools were set up in homes loaned by the construction companies, but junior and senior high school students had to be bused out to different schools miles away at great expense. A school bond issue in 1970 that might have paid for schools in Mira Mesa was put on the ballot and failed. Two more bond issues were subsequently put to the vote and they, too, were rejected.

Yet the construction companies kept on building more houses, creating an ever larger problem for Mira Mesans. Having no other recourse, mothers finally organized and started picketing in front of model homes, which drew city-wide attention. Their group, called the North City Concerned Taxpayers, took its message to the Chambers of the City Council and to the School Board, asking for a general moratorium on building until a solution could be found. In reaction to this move, the construction companies let off 3,000 workers for a day in order to protest by marching in their hard hats down Broadway to the city offices.

After a long debate, a compromise was reached. Developers all over San Diego contributed to school building funds. The School District issued availability letters, and the City Council started issuing building permits. City buses, instead of privately-chartered ones, were put to use transporting the older students to their distant schools.

A new group was formed, Mira Mesans for Schools, which wanted Mira Mesa to be de-annexed from the San Diego Unified School District to be the Mira Mesa Unified School District. A petition was presented to the County Board of Education, and the San Diego City Schools strongly objected to it. The petition was then rejected by the State Department of Education because of technical discrepanies. A new petition, containing the signatures of eighty percent of Mira Mesa's registered voters, gained nationwide publicity, but when it was finally brought before the State Board of Education, it, too, was defeated.

The only hope seemed to lie in the school bond issues. Since 1965 no such bond issue had passed that would help Mira Mesa, partly because some voters were not willing to pay taxes for a new set of schools in such a rapidly-developed, far-away part of the city. Concerned Mira Mesans, however, kept working to get voters' support of their cause. After a school bond issue failed in the spring of 1974, another one in November of that year finally passed. Sufficient funds were now available to start serious construction of schools.

A seventh grade school, consisting of portable bungalows, started operating in February, 1975. From this nucleus, a larger school was developed. On September 13, 1976, Mira Mesa Jr./Sr. High School proudly opened its doors to its first students, even though some of the buildings were not yet completed. After so much work for so many years, secondary schools in Mira Mesa had finally become a reality.

PREPARING FOR THE FUTURE

DRIVER'S EDUCATION

HEALTH, SAFETY AND DRIVERS EDUCATION

The members of this department are: Bonnie Charles-Chairman, Donald Buechler, and William Henry.

Driver's Education, as in other schools in the area, is a popular class. Students learn basic principles of driving and health and safety, before they have the actual driving practice.

REGIONAL OCCUPATIONAL PROGRAM

The Regional Occupation Program (R.O.P.) offers numerous occupational classes to all juniors and seniors. The classes are worked into one's schedule, taking the place of two electives. They are conducted at different locations in the district, some on campus, some off. Free bus transportation is provided for courses away from school. All of the on-the-job training one receives can be used as work experience on any job application. There is also a placement service for all students who complete the courses. Gary Newman is the R.O.P. counselor. The instructor for Bicycle Service and Repair is Glenn Trotter.

LOOKING FOR A JOB?

The Career Center offers students insights into future careers and opportunities to explore job possibilities thru "on the job experience."

Our career counselor is Mrs. Delay. Assistants are: Mary Lou Fjlio, Linda Duitz, Ed Dacquel, Carolyn Heinze, Laurie Merger, Tim Montoya, Sue Emerson.

SECURITY

Mr. Noah, our school's Security Guard, has been a Peace Officer for over 12 years and a Security Officer for 4½ years. He came to Mira Mesa Jr.-Sr. High School from Madison, where he was a Security Guard for 3 years. Some of our school's major problems are 1) petty theft (of things in lockers and bikes); 2) disruptive actions and busing problems; 3) outsiders on campus; and 4) drug problems. Noah's assistants are: Pat Beraud, Gary Newman, George Baswell, Curtis Royal, Tommy Gan, and Tim Wehlander.

MR. MALE AND MR. MORGA

As the secondary school nurse, Ms. Kacirk's main responsibility is to set a health service program. She has many duties and responsibilities. Some of her major duties are: to hold the health records of every student in the school; to provide emergency nursing for ill or injured students, and to notify their parents about those as well as other problems the student might have or acquire. She has other duties assigned to her that are still of considerable importance. They deal mainly with distributing first aid kits to all classes and instructing students about first aid procedures.

THE NURSE AND HER ASSISTANT

Ms. Kacirk treats different illnesses within this school. Asked about the two prime complaints that Mira Mesa High students come to her about, she replied, "headaches and stomachaches".

A television studio, a media production lab, and a computer terminal! That's the Media Center. More than your average library, it is a learning center complete with 3,000 pieces of audio-visual software, such as cassettes, film strips, slides, film loops, art prints, records, games, kits, models, and transparencies. One can even learn from a favorite piece of visual equipment, the television. In addition to all this, the Media Center has 15,000 books and 25,000 textbooks and carries 200 different magazine titles. There are many smaller rooms off the main room. Some are used for class instruction and conferences, and some are for just reading.

RISE PROJECT

RISE stands for Reform (or Revitalize) Intermediate and Secondary Education. Mira Mesa Junior Senior High School applied for and won a federal grant of money to develop a plan to carry out the changes recommended in a statewide commission's report.

The grant provides for a Council to be made up of students, parents, teachers, and non-teaching staff. The Council will make decisions regarding new graduation requirements, courses, guidance, time schedules, school climate and activities. A project staff is also provided which will develop recommendations for the Council.

The major emphasis will be on developing programs, activities, and guidance which will meet the needs, interests, and abilities of each student.

Yearbook students in action!

The small but mighty yearbook staff in spite of impossible obstacles has worked unceasingly to produce this first edition of the MIRADA. This is the climax of a "learn by doing" class which involves selling ads, selling the yearbook itself to the students, gathering information and photos of school orienated activities, sports, clubs, and combining them with art and graphics to present a memory book of the school year.

The Editorial Board was made up of three students: Pam Curtis, Richie Madamba, and Cathe Farrington. Pam Meek and Diane Day worked on art and graphics. Copy and layouts were done by Debbie Gonzales, Tami Gillilan, Vicki Linville, Cathy Anderson, Debbie Conroy, Maria Mora, and Mike Wigginton.

The advisor of the yearbook staff was Mrs. Caroline Self.

At the start of the season, people believed that the Junior Varsity Football title would be fought between Mira Mesa and Serra—they were right! Due to a C.I.F. rule, first year high schools are only allowed to have a J.V. team in football, which means that tenth, eleventh, and twelfth graders were eligible to try out. This was a definite asset to Mira Mesa and to Serra. As predicted, both teams went to what was considered the "Super Bowl" of J.V. Football with perfect 8-0 records. The final game to decide the championship was held on Serra's home turf. When the closing gun sounded, our football players had pulled off a 22-0 victory. A very dejected Serra team limped off the field as "Blue & Gold" rejoiced. The Marauders had climaxed a perfect season in fashion.

As in many of our first year teams, Volleyball did not fair too well. Competition was of high standards for the inexperienced group which resulted in only one win this season.

However, most of the players were Sophomores and Juniors, and with Mrs. Springer and Mrs. McMahon for coaches, the team is sure to improve—they may even be able to capture the League title with "Super Stoner" and "Potential" there to help.

Varsity: Michelle Germany, Beth Middleton, Dianne Gilbert, Anita Meehan, Velma Tasalle, Terry Harvick, Maria Emerson, Steph Elfman, Manager Cindy Jackson, and Coach Springer.

WATERLOGGED ATHLETES

What do you say to a coach when only three people show up for his sport, or when the uniforms and equipment he desperately needs can't be found, or when he realizes that there isn't a place to practice? This is exactly what happened to Coach Elliot and his co-ed Waterpolo Team. Gradually though, the three lone players grew to twenty-seven (all guys), and eventually they were able to practice at the NAS Miramar pool, at LaJolla Cove, and in the bay. They didn't win a meet but the coach was happy enough just to know he had a team.

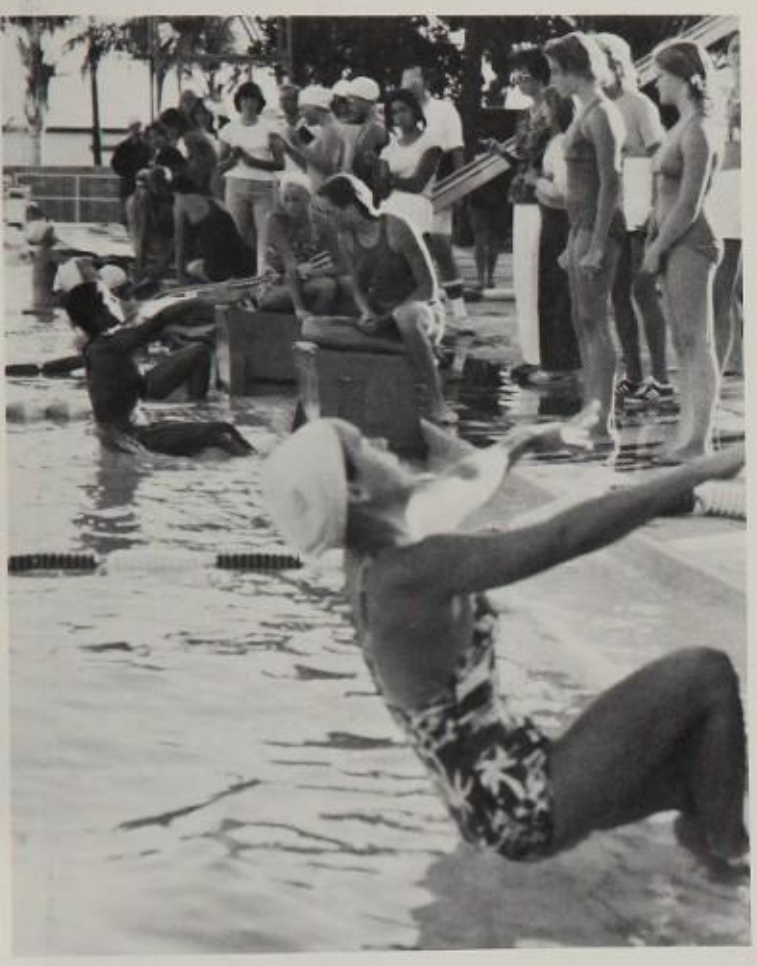
GOLDEN MERMAIDS

Swimming in the Blue



The Girls' Swimming Team has made a terrific beginning this new school year. The Varsity swam into third place in the Western League while J.V. was able to capture the number two position. Word is out that there will be some strong swimmers joining next fall and the girls are anxious to build their team not only in quality but also in quantity.

The team members are: Mary Klein, Sandy Mercer, Roxanne Smith, Christy Wheeler, Lori Keefer, Josie Eck, Susan Lambert, Kelley Fullerton, Barbara Weaver, Kris Borjesson, Jane Gatewood, Robin Lewis, Tracy Burkett, Linda Craft, Deanne Johnson, Gretchen Vossenkemper, Cindy Menezes, Jill Morgen, Ginger Andersen, Kelly Parker, Laurie Mergen, Gloria Belanjer, Cindy Dellwo, Lori Brown, Vicki Russell, Delane Pickel, Kelly O'Neil, Regina Cromwell, Elizabeth Collins, Sandy Conroy, Christy Horne, Lise McCoy, Jennifer Peterson, Debbie Foss, Kathy Masters, Kristina Park, Nancy Williamson, Kim Stott, Cheri Kelin, Coach Lisa Ray, and Manager Kevin Paulsen.

MARAUDERS . . .

. . . on the run

Although the victory in a Cross Country meet is the result of team efforts, it is really a matter of individual discipline and achievement. It is dedication to long hours of physical endurance in preparation for competition against others who have spent just as many long hours in the same exhausting routine. Training for CC is running and running and running; up the stairs, down the stairs, around the corner, through the bleachers, again and again and again. Each day you strive for duration, gradually building on speed, hoping that your final burst of energy will be great enough to capture the number one title instead of the number two.

All of the CC meets were held in the hilly region of the UCSD campus. Before each race the members, as a team, would jog the three mile course in order to know the exact twists and turns of the already familiar track. This insures the runners of not making a possible wrong turn.

Although CC does not have as many spectators as some of the more noted Fall sports, the team has a spirit all their own. This is the result of self-respect and pride in each other's accomplishments.

The members of the Varsity team are: Jeff Davis, Doug Huntley, Dave Banda, Greg Lane, Lita Whiteman, Clancy Brunner, Pat Stewart, Chris Evers, C.J. Wood, Mike Brunner, Randy Pauley, Rex Heagy, Steve Gerrior, Randy Horton, and Coach Lottermoser.

The members of the JV team are: Bob McCarthy, Mark Reed, Tony Meyer, Peter Davis, Steve Vandenberg, Jeff Lemaire, Arthur Salindong, Jason Jesus, Jay Flynn, Andy Ivers, Jose Tabuena, Ronnie Seamster, Deven Alnutt, Bira Barbosa, Vince Meehan, Glen Sayarot, James Strachan, Derrick McCarty, Dennis Kraft, Romel Herrera, Josie Montejano, Brenda Burnett, John Mahoney, Scott Smith, Joe Hosey, Bob Follmer, Bob Hutchison, Mike Curran, Bob Pfankuch, Bob Brenner, Terry Griffin, Bill Adams, Martin Armand, Trey Beahm, Chris Miller, Herb Fluster, and Coach Lottermoser.

The Girls' Tennis Team was comprised mostly of young members this year, assuring the coaches of a much better season next fall in terms of player experience and familiarity of members. Although Mrs. Olsen and Mrs. Meigs were greatly impressed at the tremendous effort given by the team, they believed some of the girls had more potential.

With a 2-14 loss as an opening game, the girls ended with a smash victory over our Lady of Peace with a score of 12-4. And to top their final match, Mira Mesa placed 4th in the League.

The members are: Karen Williams, Kari Mitchell, Valerie Valero, Wendy Dodge, Betsy Millsberg, Lori Odorico, Nancy Loraso, Richie Madamba, Tina Odorico, Shawn Hall, Debbie Gonzales, Coach Meigs, Pam Pierre, Liz Buszewski, Denise Fagen, Marcy Anderson, Beth Shiel, Norma Warford, Dawn Nichols, and Coach Olsen.

RACKET and NET games

Having only eight of the thirteen players needed for a full team, this year's Badminton Squad had a fair season. Playing such schools as Kearny and La Jolla, the girls ended the season with a 1-6 record, their lone win against Lincoln.

Badminton tournaments consist of four singles and four doubles, but because of the lack of members, Mira Mesa was forced to forfeit two of their eight matches played against each school.

With six returning players, next year's team will be much more experienced and will have many more acquired skills needed to win the League title. As for the coach, Mrs. Carol "Quack Quack" Stowe, she'll be back too.

The members of the badminton team are: Frances Dumpit, Becky Michael, Patty Meeker, Dolores Almazon, Rose Dela Cruz, Eva Reyes, Mercedes Martinez, and Clara Rippel.

THE ROUGH AND TUMBLE BOUTS OF MMHS

Wrestling, which is one of the oldest sports known to man, is a body-contact sport between two athletes in which each tries to throw the other down and pin his shoulders to the mat. Superior knowledge often enables a wrestler to defeat a much bigger and heavier opponent by using his conpetitor's own efforts to force a fall with a skillful twist or turn.

In the actual wrestling match, each participant tries to surprise the other with a take-down, a maneuver designed to throw the opponent off balance and to the ground. Once a wrestler has been thrown down, his opponent tries to keep him down. Meanwhile, the fallen wrestler employs various defensive tactics to free himself and to gain the top position.

The first week of the season showed enthusiastic guys all ready to play. The only thing holding the team back was the weather—it rained. With only seven days before their first match, and not even having picked his team out, Coach Cunningham was almost forced to forfeit, but luckily the sun finally came out.

It takes lots of patience and a certain amount of drive to play a sport like tennis well. Since it is an individual rather than a team effort, the responsibility of making or breaking the game rests entirely on the player, adding on more pressure to what is already there.

Tennis is a psychological as well as a physical activity. The athlete must be able to anticipate the on coming ball as well as have the concentration and the skill to return it with accuracy and speed.

With the right attitude, tennis can be lots of fun.

playing our nation's #1 sport — BASEBALL

Being popular both as a playing sport and a spectator sport, baseball has become "America's national pasttime." Having it's origin from an old English game called rounders and from cricket, it has grown tremendously since it's beginning.

Here in Mira Mesa, baseball also has it's share of fans. The good turnout of interested guys in playing for the school has made it possible for coaches Elliot and Foggiano to choose a team that has potential. With the experience each player has acquired, the team is already looking at a good season.

learning teamwork in BASKETBALL

Besides having skill and potential, a team soon learns that it must also have the co-operation of all its members.

Many of the first year basketball players on the team expected to win most of their games, considering the talent each individual had and also the great coaching they were receiving.

In the beginning, they could not understand or believe in the conflicts that were between many of the girls. As the early mornings past, they realized that working together plays a big part in winning and having fun.

With the majority of the team being underclassmen, the future basketball team will have plenty of experience and know-how to succeed from the start.

Graduation

By Robyn Bartholomew

And so, the time has come,
to part with our childhood,
And welcome the world of adults.
It is a frighting experience,
When we know the door to our childhood security
slams behind us,
Never to be opened again.
But we will face this new world with hope and bravery.
I'ts a hard time for most of us,
With many obstacles.
Some too fearful of failure to begin,
Some to confident they overshadow the weak.
But we will achieve some grasp of success.
Though we may stumble at first,
In the end . . . We will walk TALL.

SENIOR

Our school's first graduating class is the smallest it will ever be, only 164, chose to come to Mira Mesa to be in the first graduating class.

In spite of the small number, these students working with other A.S.B. officers have had the difficult task of writing the school's constitution. They've also worked hard to raise funds for their class by selling imprinted T-shirts, which gave them money toward a graduation gift for the school.

The senior class sponsor is Mr. Bold, the president is George Azar, the vice-president is Maria Mora, the secretary is Cathy Anderson, the treasurer is Elenita McKillips.

SOCK-HOP DANCING

It was Thursday night, February 3rd, the beginning of a 3-day weekend. The school parking lot was crowded with cars—but it was already 10 PM! Faint sounds of music issued from the direction of the gymnasium. It was the sounds of Brimstones, the band hired for MMHS's first dance.

The front of the gym was crowded with the many disappointed kids who did not buy their tickets beforehand. Once inside, the sight of barefooted or socking clad feet gave the impression of an informal but exciting party. And that was exactly what it was—our first school party, and it was a blast!

CAPTURED TALENT

THE LADDER OF LIFE

With the pain of birth
a child cries,
with tears of joy
in your arms he lies.

Step by step
the child walks,
with love and reward
the child talks.

Valentine lovers,
June sweethearts,
the child's a man
with love in his heart.

He marries a woman
fair of face,
She loves him dearly
the home's her place.

He fights a war
for what they think is right, shrill screams of horror
the land's a bloody sight.

A bullet sinks in his chest
and he lies in the mud, shots ringing out
he cries tears of blood.

In the beginning
a child cries
and in the end a young man dies.

Listen to the tone of the wind, it flows through the branches of your mind, whispering all the secrets of the world to you.
It enters your thoughts, turning them around in a great whirlpool of knowledge.

The wind tells the story of everything ever present on the face of the earth.
It takes tales from the far corners of the earth, mixes them together wonderful and beautiful, but, it also fills you with a sense of dis-pair and disillusionment.

The wind enters your thoughts, and just as fast as it comes, it departs, leaving your thoughts wandering on untraveled plains.
Making you wonder about life and death, about what's going on around you.

The wind enchants you and carries you to places beyond consciousness.
It uses you like a pawn in a giant game of chess, moving you into one place and then another.
The wind gives you a means of escape,
listen to the wind.

I'm Free

High on a mountain top,
The valley before me I see,
All people now look up
Take notice that I'm free.

Here on my cloud-touched throne
I'm master of all I survey,
And no one can bring me down,
Or take this memory away.

Todd McNamara

preamble

We, the Associated Student Body of Mira Mesa Junior Senior High School, in order to maintain the established program of education, to provide a stable foundation for our government, to encourage school spirit and to insure cooperation and understanding between the students and the community, do ordain and establish this constitution.

We would like to thank the A.S.B. Executive council, who put in many long hours and worked hard to establish our school's constitution. The preamble is the forwarding statement. The rules and procedures for Mira Mesa Junior-Senior High students to abide by are included in the constitution. It sets the guideline for our student government and procedures for organizing our school's clubs and activities. The members of the Executive council are Liz Magpuri, Debbie Conroy, David Harvick, Beth Middleton, Mike Barret, Terry Harvick, Susan Sayarot, Cathe Farrington, Morris White, and Monette Estuban

we honor

Pam Curtis, a junior, was honored with a pin for working one hundred hours at Sharps Hospital. She volunteered her help two days a week working in the pharmacy and engineering departments.

Tony Ochoa, a sophomore, received the Boy Scout of America Medal of Merit for saving his friend's life. The Medal of Merit is the Boy Scout's second highest award. Tony is one of six boys in San Diego County who received the award in 1976.

As a freshman, Steve Haupt succeeded in shooting 17 consecutive baskets, in basketball, receiving the title of the # 1 Freethrow shooter in San Diego County.

The first trophy awarded to Mira Mesa High was received by Lia Whiteman, a junior. Her self-discipline and dedication has placed her as our # 1 female cross-country runner.

Our only participant in the CIF Cross Country Finals was Greg Lane, a junior. Through out the season he established himself as our most valuable runner.

KACHINA DOLLS

For many years Mr. Volz, our vice principal, has been interested in the Indian arts and cultures. He enjoys making Kachina dolls. Kachina means "respect and spirit". These dolls are impersonators of the various Indian gods. The Indians live by the legends of the Kachina dolls. In the above photos is "Holi". He received his name from a chant sang in a ceremony. Mr. Volz carves and hand paints every detail himself. His materials are authentic. Using pinewood to carve the dolls and feathers from chickens, ducks, or turkeys, he makes very unique dolls.

A Thundering Experience

It was an offshore swell in the middle of winter. It was cold when I arrived to Blacks cliffs, early Sunday morning. I already had my wetsuit on so that I wouldn't have to struggle putting it on there. Carefully I walked down the cliffs, until I reached the sand below. Standing on the chilled sand I watched what seemed to be the largest and fastest waves in my life. I thought to myself for a second, took a breath and started towards the water. The closer I got to the waves the larger they seemed to get. The waves were standing with 8 foot faces and 11 foot backs. They were in good form and I knew it would be an experience when I made it out all the way. It took me about 35 minutes to finally get out and I was extremly exhausted so I sat on my board for a while to catch my breath. I swung my head back to remove the hair from my eyes. Then I saw it, a swell building to a tremendous size. My nerves were slightly tense, but I was determined. As it approached me I could feel the sea breeze at my back. I started to paddle, then suddenly I could feel the wave start lifting and pushing me faster and faster. I started to kneel down into the side of the wave, then I could feel I was starting to loose my balance. The wave threw me like someone shooting me from a giant sling-shot. As I came to the surface the wave was just starting to break I knew I had really had it now. All of a sudden down it came right on top of me, starting with the lip, it felt as though I was just in an avalanche of nothing but rocks and boulders. I was tossed and turned and pulled to the bottom with nothing left except the remaining breath of air I had taken in when I fell. I managed to get to the surface and swim to the beach where I relaxed for awhile and then returned home for a warm bowl of soup for lunch.

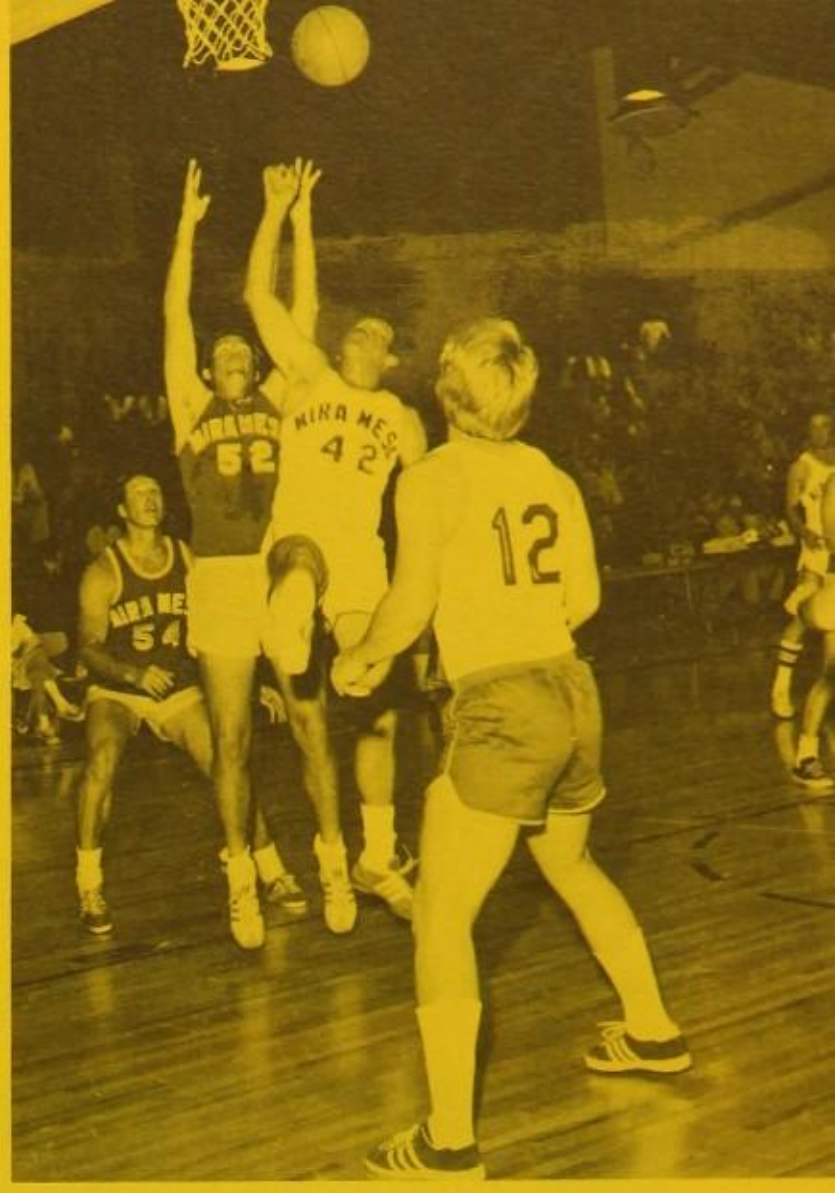
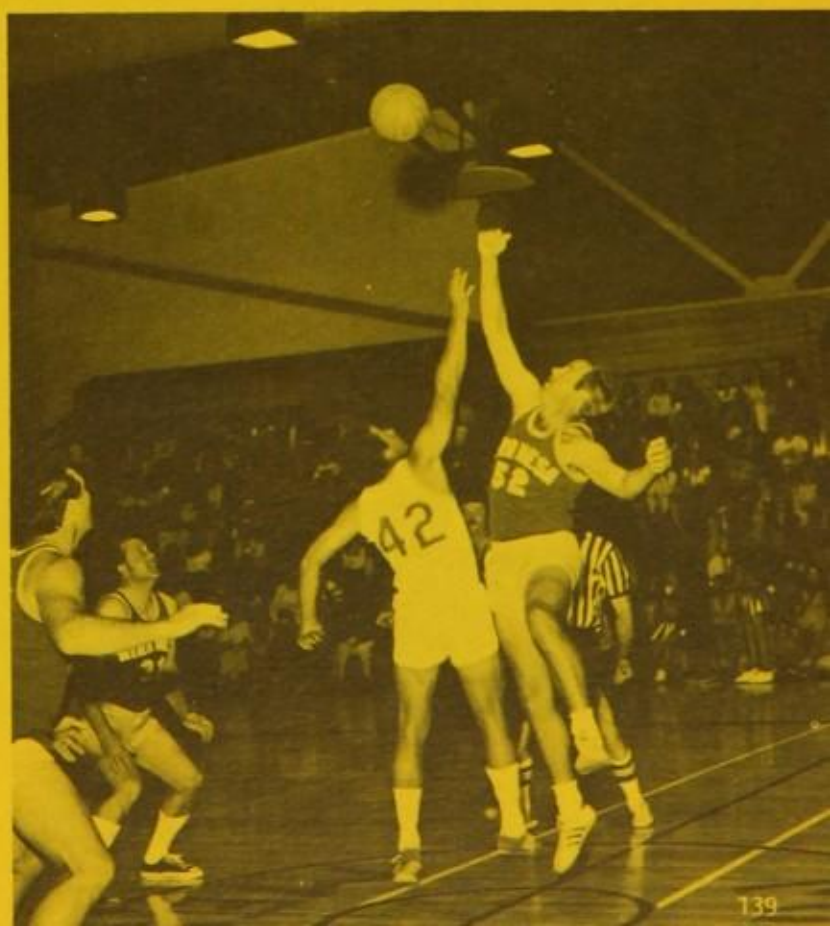
A NOT SO FINE ART

A sort of "Creative Basketball"—like Dada, anti-art, like the chance meeting on the dissecting table of an umbrella and a sewing machine—was the jamming together into one event two unlikes such as the Padres Pro baseball team and the Mira Mesa "potluck" all-star faculty team. The mysteries of the unmatched, the novelty of the unexpected, and the carefreeness over who would win made the game a lark and a pleasure for all. Mira Mesa edged out the pros with a score of 67-64. Randy Jones of the Padres was the special guest star for the evening.





DRAMATIC AND COLORFUL BATIKS

Batik is a type of art that allows an individual to imaginatively use designs and colors. Along with their class, Valerie Brenner, Tony Cristerella, Lynn Kazon, and Craig Lobel were taught how to construct and paint their batiks with hot wax & dye.

DECORATIVE ART CLASS =

SAND CANDLES

When making sand-candles you can create candles of various shapes, sizes, and textures. BELOW are the steps for making sand-candles:

1. Put damp sand in a box.

2. Make an impression of the shape of your candle in the sand. Remember the bottom of the impression must be level.

3. Melt candle wax in a can over hot water. Do not melt over direct flame.

4. Pour melted wax into the sand mold and allow to harden until there is a slight thickening.

5. Insert a wire core wick through a hole in the center of the candle.

6. Let the wax harden (the amount of sand coating on the candle depends on how long it is left in the mold).

MAGAZINE PUBLICATION

Expressions is our school's own creative writing magazine. The club is open to every grade level and their advisor is Mrs. Duncan. The magazine contains poetry, short stories, and art work done by students from our school.

Next year the club hopes to publish the magazine once a month. The members are: Kris Borjesson, Lance Capua, Tammy Dobbins, Doug Dumpit, Sharon Heiges, Fred Holbach, Dan Hoskins, Elaine Hsu, Kent Krauss, Carl Luna, Dianna Murphy, Abe Padilla, Cheri Robinson, Matt Seymour, Paige Wheeler, Kim Williams, Tina Wilt, and Terry Wombles.

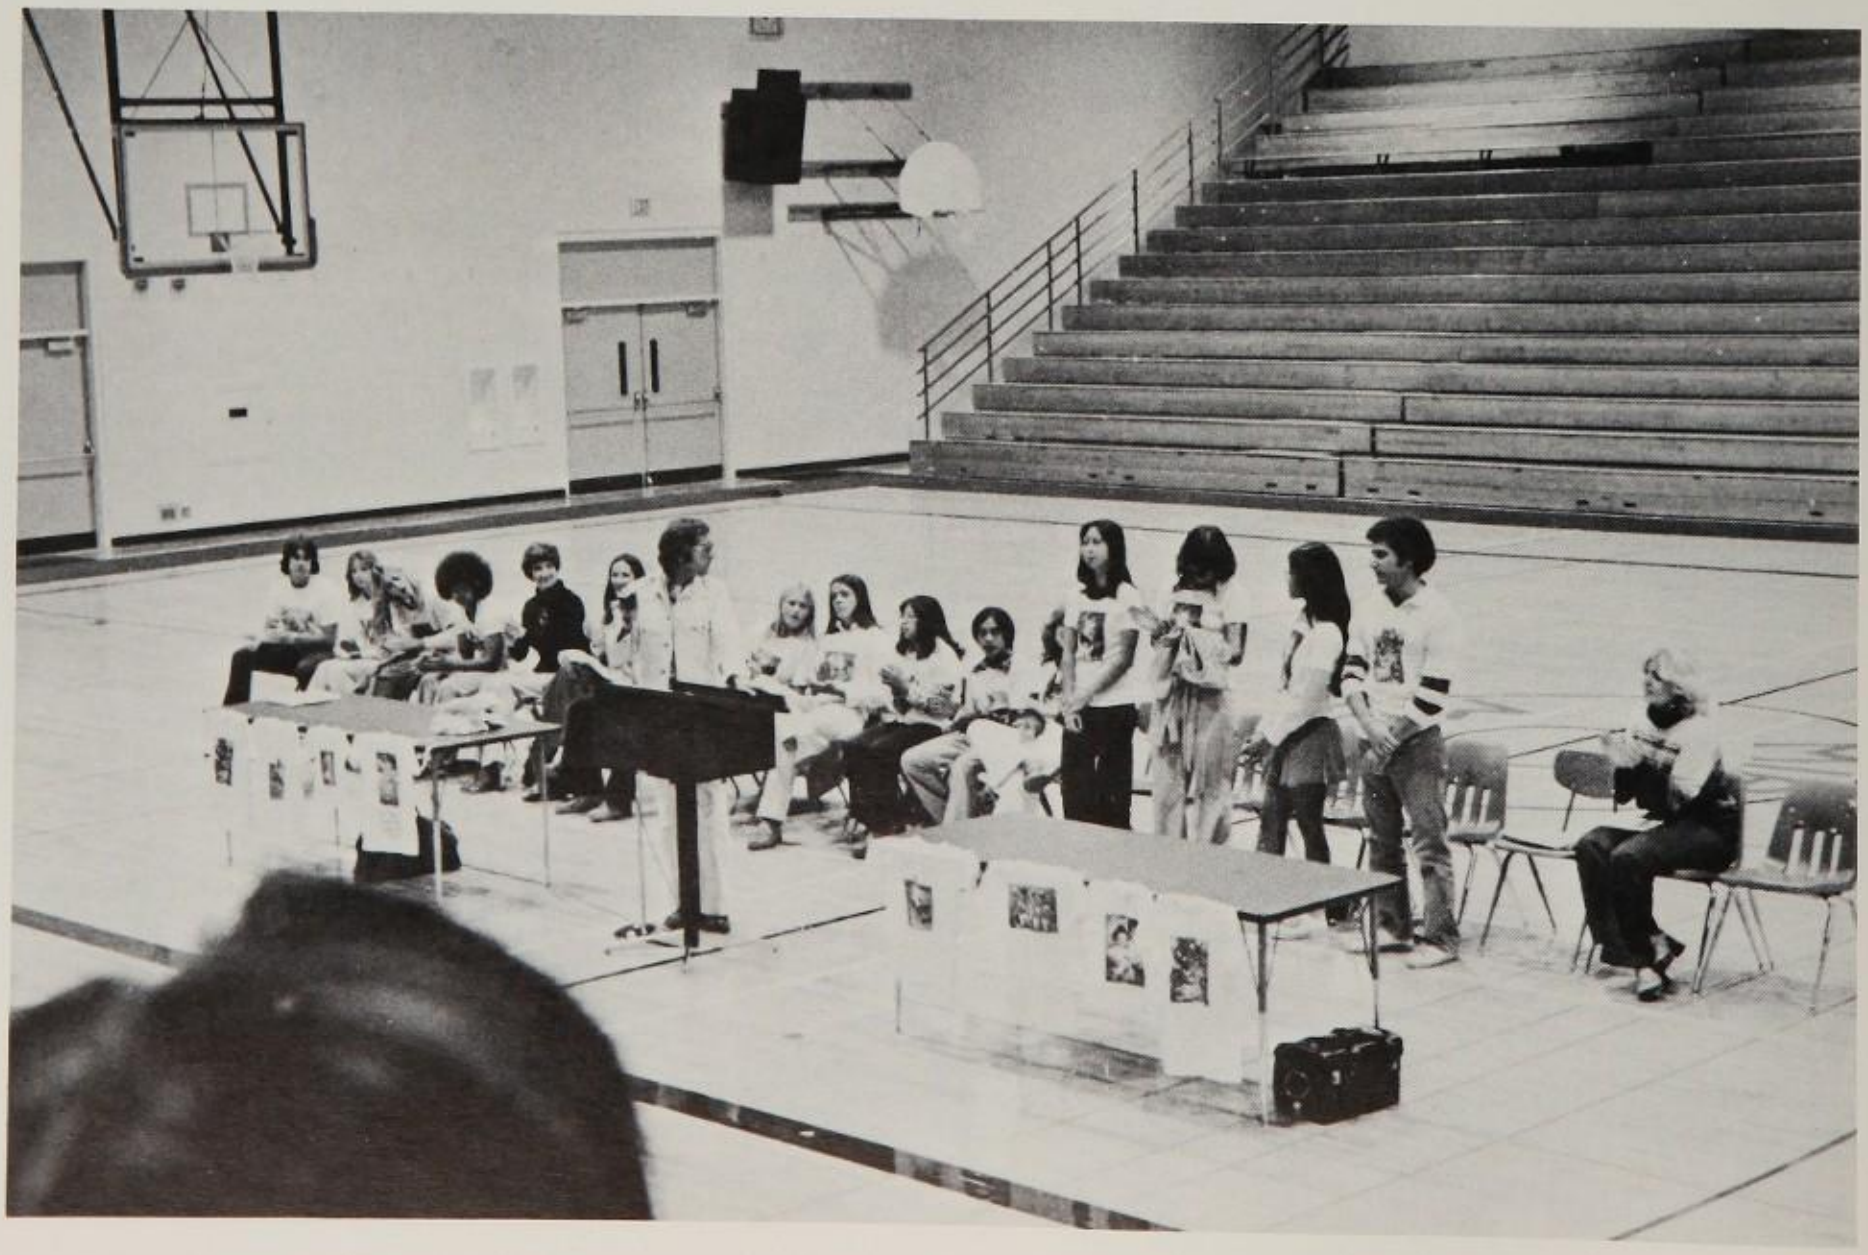
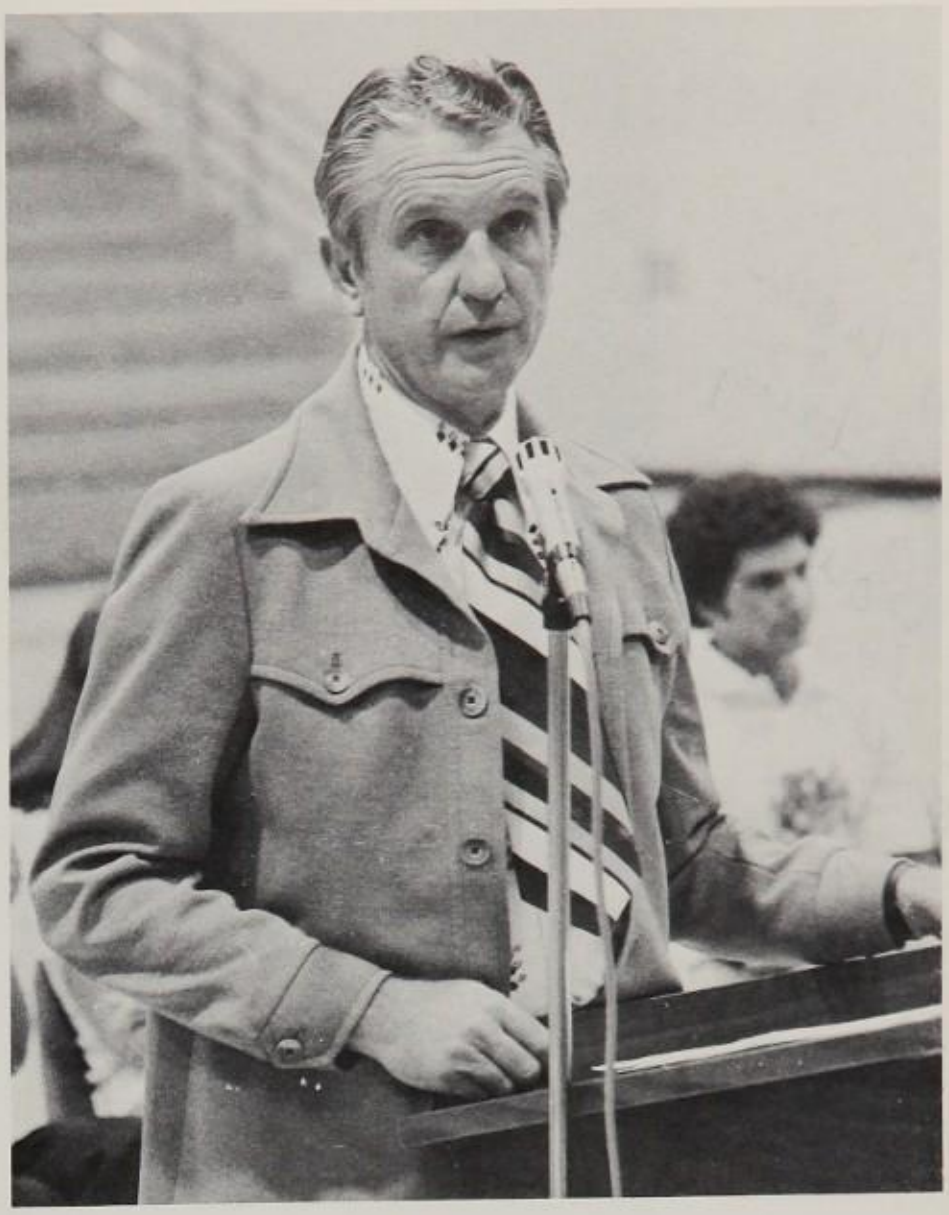
OFFICERS INTRODUCED AT OUR FIRST CLASS MEETING

At our first assembly we were introduced to our class officers.

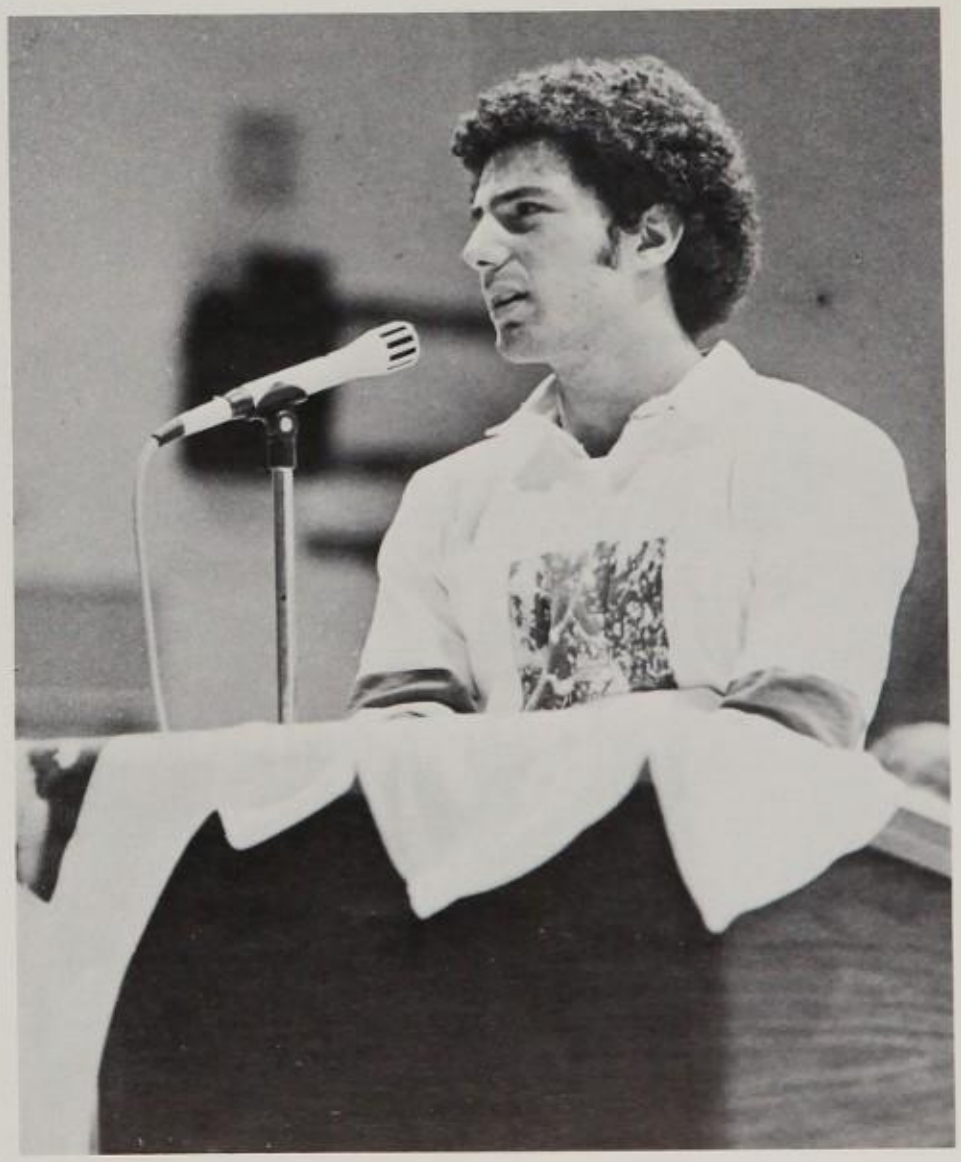


We were told of a fund raising drive to gather money for all our classes and that each one would get an equal share. You could have bought a T-Shirt and had your favorite photo put on it.



Mr. Fansler is introducing the vice-principals.

George Azar takes a few minutes to tell us about fund raising activites.



A CHRISTMAS CHORAL

Jim
It's been good working with you.
Keep working!

WHAT'S HA

DID YOU KNOW . . . ?

The A.S.B. Ball never got off the ground.
The J.V. football team won all their games.
We only have 182 seniors in this school.
This school year we didn't have to go to school 104 days including weekends.
There are 146 chairs in the main area of the Media Center.

PPENING.....

FIRST IMPRESSIONS

To the max.

It's casual.

No biggy.

Azzy.....

You're nervy.

That's cold.

How insane.

That's life in the big city.

I don't even care.

Hold me back.

Get down.

Be serious.

Really!

What a space-case.

You're lost!!

EXCUSES . . . EXCUSES . . .

My car broke down on the way to school.
I had to make a phone call.
The teacher hates me!
My mom was ½ hour late getting home from work and I had to babysit my little brother.
I had to walk my girlfriend to class.
My locker wouldn't open.
The teacher picks on me!
I had to go to the restroom.
My shoelace broke and I had to buy a new one before school or I would have had to go barefoot in school.
I got lost?
I went to the library and well I ah . . .
I dropped my books in the sewer and I had to go get them.
My bike had a flat tire on the way to school.
A green monster chased me around school and I got lost!

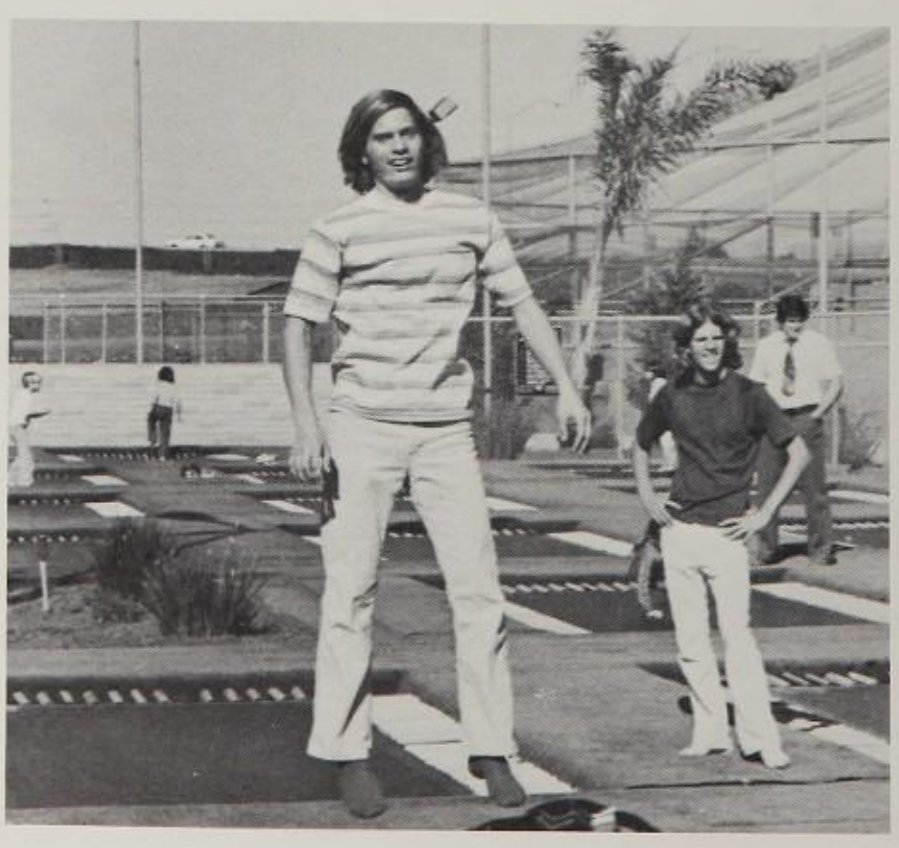
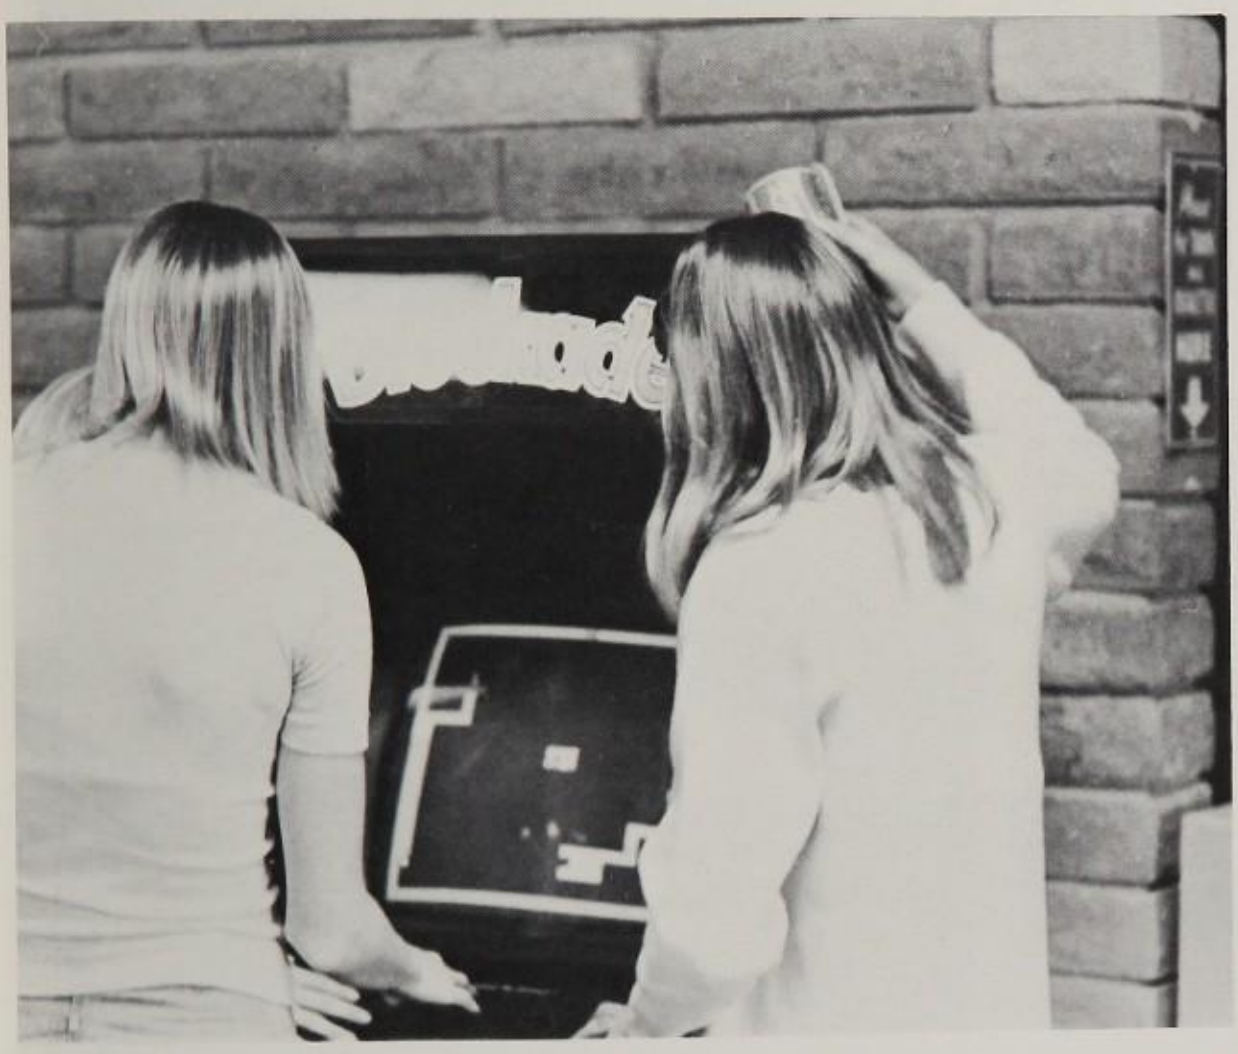
COME ALONG AND JOIN THE FUN

The French Club hosted a day at the fun center in Clairmont. They earned money for the prospective summer trip to France.





GOD

Mira Mesa's first two dramatic productions were a big success. Two Woody Allen comedies were put on by the drama group. The first one, Death, was a play that could be followed from start to finish, with a definite meaning. Whereas God was a play that had the audience totally baffled. No one had the same idea as to the meaning of this play. Many different interpretations were arrived at. The characters in order of appearance are:

God
Mike Wigginton
John Pasenelli
Lorri Keefer
Doug Dillard
R.P. Anderson
Kelly Vine
Mike Murphy
Mark McCoy
John Sacks
Ron Navarette
Ginger Anderson
Norma Warford
Toni Adkins
Todd McNamara
Dave Harvick
Terry Harvick
Jeff Mankins
Morris White
Bill Folmer
Jill Morgan

Death
Bill Folmer
Darrell Williams
Pat Cruz
R.P. Anderson
Doug Dillard
Greg Kennedy
Joe Morgan
Ginger Anderson
Morris White
Terry Harvick
Victor Ballesteros
Dave Harvick
Ron Navarette
John Sacks
Mark McCoy
Mike Wigginton

CELEBRATION OF ST. NICK

David Hoskins and Alan Talampas portray a descriptive scene from the well known A Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens. In this photo, Alan Talampas, acting as Scrooge tries to fight away one of the ghosts, played by David Hoskins.

While studying mythology, Ms. Marriner and her first and second period classes came up with the question "Who was the real Saint Nicolaus?" The classes asked many questions about this man and showed such interest that the teacher asked everyone to make a report on him.

After many reports and much discussion Ms. Marriner decided to reward the students with a Saint Nicolaus celebration. On his own accord, each student dressed up on the final day before Christmas vacation. Ms. Marriner suggested the class have a real live Christmas tree to make the celebration seem more like Christmas. The two classes raised enough money to buy a living tree which would afterward be donated to the school gardens.

GETTING AQUAINTED AT OPEN HOUSE

Open house is a time for parents to meet their children's new teachers. This open house was different though, the parents were here not only to meet new teachers but to get aquainted with the school. This was the school everyone had been waiting for.

What did it look like inside? The outside to many parents looked like a prison. The school was different inside than most parents had expected, carpets and bright cheerful murals filling rooms and halls. One thing was missing, and that was windows. Some remarked about how their students managed to get from one class to another when they themselves could not! However, these things did not keep them from thinking we had a great school.

We may start dressing next week or maybe . . .

He's really doing well in P.E.

Did you take that Brownie?

Wow! This school is big.

He's doing that bad?

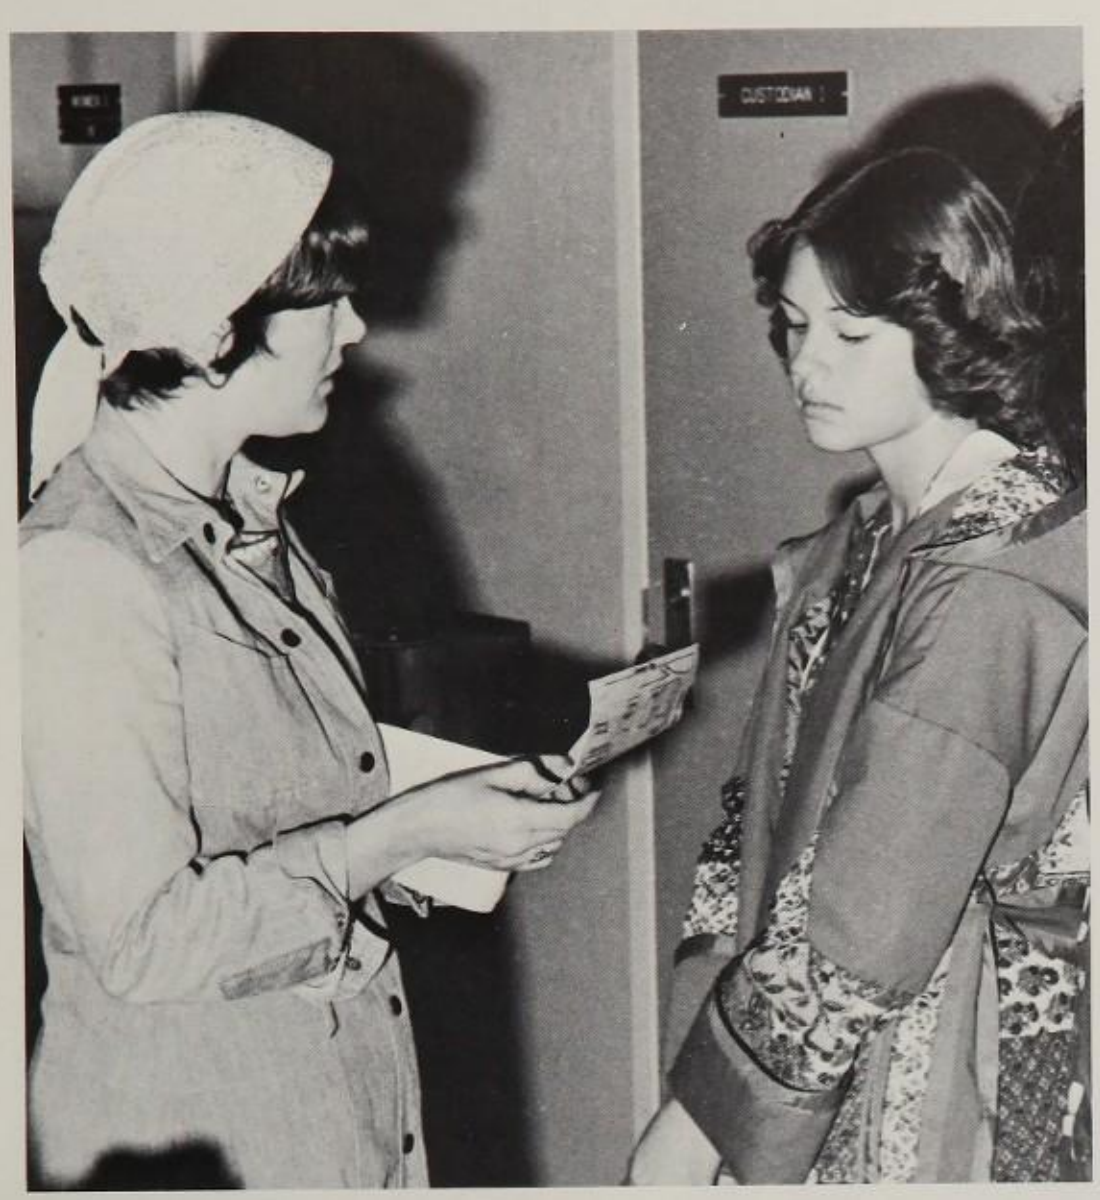
Open House goodies.

Parents quenching their thirst.

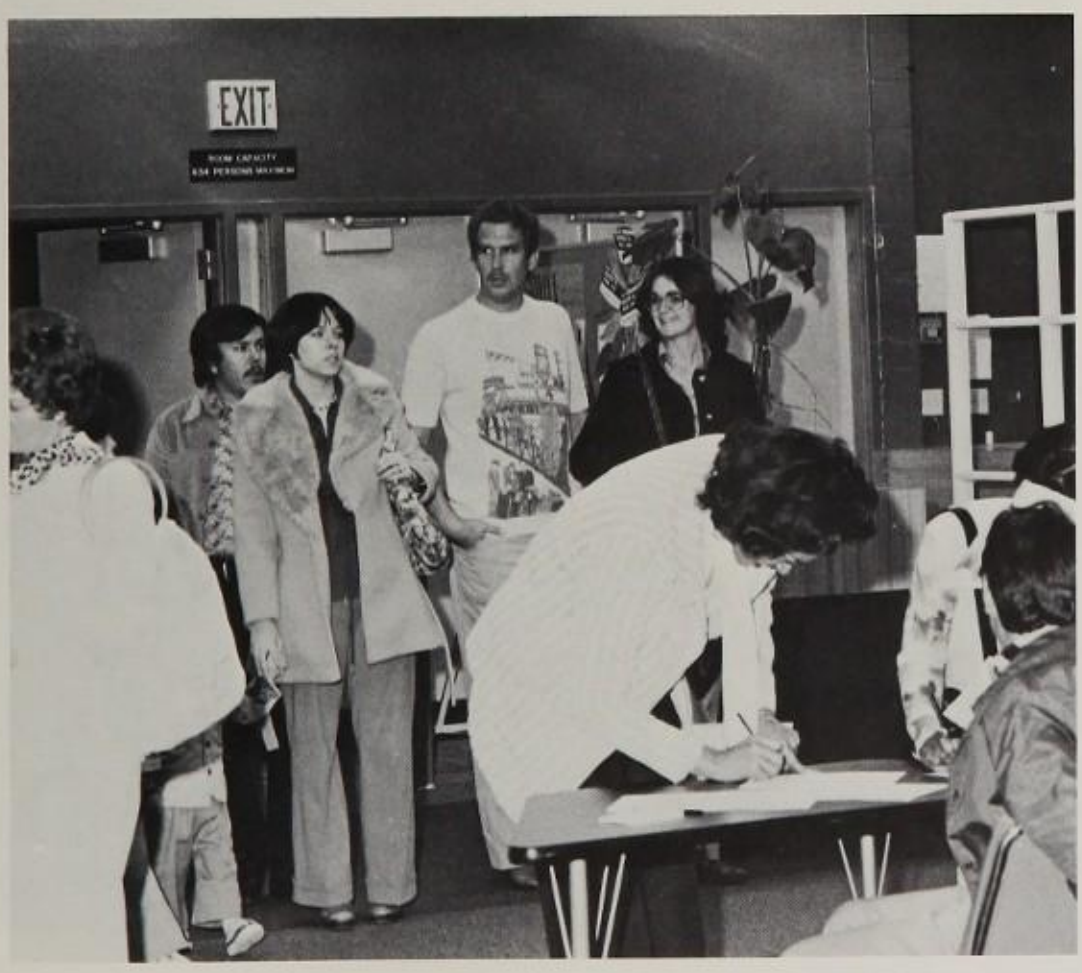
Smile, you're on Candid Camera.

Hurry, let's make a quick get away with these pies.

FIRST IMPRESSIONS OF OUR NEW SCHOOL



Do we have to walk all the way over there?



What do you think?

The first stop for most people was the large Media Center with so many interesting things going on. A film "Mira Mesa: a Growing Story" showed the story of a small seventh grade school which grew to be our new high school. In the center you could have been on T.V. if that had always been your dream. There the students set up audio visual equipment in the television studio. If your sweet tooth was aching you could have satisfied that too. Tables were filled with everything you could imagine: brownies, cupcakes, cookies, even pumpkin pie with whipped cream. Candy and coke were available at our own student store. 140 enthusiastic parents joined the P.T.A. that night. It was a small group as the P.T.A. was just getting started. Our gym opened for the first time to parents and students, and the clubs were able to use the front for their bake sales.

Everyone, students and parents, are proud of the school which took so much hard work to organize.

NOW IT'S OUR SCHOOL!

On Sunday, February sixth, the school dedication took place in the new gymnasium. The presentation of the colors and the Pledge of Allegiance were led by the Boy Scouts; The U.S. Navy Band played the Star Spangled Banner; The invocation was given by Rev. William Kraft; Mr. William Fansler, our Principal, made the introductions and welcomed those attending. The presentation of guests was led by Jerome Neal, CAC chairperson; Dr. Thomas L. Goodman, Superintendent of Education, extended greetings and remarks; The Rev. George W. Smith, President of the Board of Education, made the presentation of the school to the community. Accepting for the community was Vickie Johnson, the PTSA President; Debbie Conroy, the ASB President, accepted for the student body. A time capsule was presented by Don Crawford. The school chorus sang a medley under the direction of Norvada Smedley: The Rev. Stewart Reimnitz gave the benediction. The retirement of the colors was again led by the Boy Scouts, and a musical postlude was played by the U.S. Navy Band.

After the ceremony, officials, parents, teachers, and students enjoyed a social hour with punch and cookies and a tour of the new buildings with opportunities to meet and visit with teachers and staff.

As we approach the closing of this school year, we look back at all the things that made this time unique. When we started, the buildings were not ready to use and we had to go on double sessions. Being the first students ever to attend this school, we had no traditions to follow or fall back on. There was a lot of work to do and no time for laziness in paving the way for all future students. We had elections and A.S.B. officers and class officers were the first students to start organizing things. Clubs and organizations began to take form just as the grass in the landscaping became green and hearty. Construction continued until more classrooms, the media center, and the gym were opened, then double sessions were no longer necessary. Some were sorry for the change, but others welcomed it, for without double sessions we could be a more unified school. We could not have managed through all these difficulties of putting a school together without the combined effort of students, teachers, and parents. We may not have it all together yet, but we still have next year to improve on what we've started.

NEWCOMERS

TEACHERS

Jim;
To a really cool Jock
Keep it up with the Viola
See you next year
Good luck
Mike Bailey

Jim,
To a guy that can use some practice on his viola! (trick)
Good luck
anyway!
Bill Bentz

Aren't you tired of people writing about your viola?
So what! Keep practicing!
That joke isn't funny. The pencil one.
You friend
Jerbear way ha, ha)
Harry
Allen

James!

I really enjoyed
giving you butt-rolls, and throwing paper-wads at you, and all of the other disturbing things that I did to your kis semester!
I hope you are in some of my other classes in the future so I can bug the hell out of you!
Stay cool, and have a deep and meaningful relationship with someone of the opposite sex this summer, and next year, tell me what her name was! (NO LIE!) HA!

Larry
